USCIS requested input on these questions in its 60-day notice and received no comments. If no comments are received from knowledgeable individuals, USCIS will perform its own analysis using information from other sources to estimate these costs for its next submission to OMB for this information collection.

In addition, to be helpful in the improvement of this form and the program associated with this information collection, written comments and suggestions are requested to provide USCIS with clear and specific suggestions on the data elements captured through these forms and the evidence required to be submitted with a focus on one or more of the following four points:

- (1) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

- (2) The accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

- (3) How to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

- (4) How to reduce or minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of this information collection:

- (1) Type of Information Collection: Revision of a currently approved information collection.

- (2) Title of the Form/Collection: Application for Employment Authorization; Form I-765 Work Sheet.
